2. What does it mean that "from God, every family in heaven and earth is named?"
3. What is happening in this text? What is Paul's physical posture in verse 14? What is the source of his praise and adoration (v.15-17)?
4. Have you ever spoken to the Father on your knees? Would you like to as a group now?
5. Paul describes a supernatural comprehension, a knowing of the love of Christ that surpasses intellectual knowledge. According to this passage, what is our means of this supernatural comprehension?
6. Paul spends the opening 3 chapters discussing God's truth and then he uses this text to urge readers to experience God. What can we learn from this?
