

HOPE Rising

"May the God of hope fill you
with all joy and peace in believing,
so that by the power of the Holy Spirit
you may abound in hope."

Romans 1:8-15

Notes:

Paul on _____

“Because of the Empire’s vast extent and long endurance, the institutions and culture of Rome had a profound and lasting influence on the development of language, religion, architecture, philosophy, law, and forms of government in the territory it governed, particularly Europe, and by means of European expansionism throughout the modern world.”

Notes:

Philippians 3:20-21

Romans 1:8-9:

Notes:

Romans 1:10-12:

Notes:

Romans 1:13-15:

Notes:

“Romans is the nearest approach to a systematic exposition of Paul’s own theological position, independent of any immediate circumstances... Rome was the greatest city in the world, the capital of the greatest Empire the world had ever seen... But in writing to such a church in such a city, it was fitting he should set down the very centre and core of his belief.” —William Barclay

Notes:

Paul on _____

Notes:

Romans 1:5-6

Notes:

Matthew 28:19-20

“William Sunday... said of Romans, ‘It is testamentary’ meaning it is Paul’s last will and testament... In this book Paul distills the last word on the Christian faith... it is complete. Burton said, ‘It is a prophylactic’—something that guards against infection. He referenced Romans as a prophylactic of the church—a guardian against apostasy and heresy.”

Sharing hope is the passion of my heart for our church and the community that surrounds Warren.
