“Wordy prayers are usually windy ones.”
—A.W. Pink

“When thou prayest, let thy words be few, but thy thoughts and affections many, and above all let them be profound... External and bodily prayer is that buzzing of the lips, that outside babble that is gone through without any attention, and which strikes the ears of men; but prayer in Spirit and Truth is the inward desire, the motions, the signs, which issue from the depths of the heart. The former is the prayer of hypocrites and of all who trust in themselves: the latter the prayer of the children of God who walk in His fear.” —Martin Luther
