Hope Rising From a Missional Movement

Romans 10:12-17

Romans 10:12-15

Notes:

*God not only designed your feet for standing,
but desires to use your feet in sending
His message and extending His mission in the world.*

Are you living out God's missional purpose in your life?

What is important about any church is not its seating capacity, but its sending capacity.

Notes:

1 Corinthians 1:26-27

Notes:

Missional living is the adoption of the posture, thinking, behaviors, and practices of a missionary in order to engage others with the gospel message.

Notes:

Let's do something with...

- No Cost
- No Change
- No Challenge
- No Commitment

“The key to the relative failure of the church appears to be in the ‘sending’ of those who can reach the unreached... The only possible flaw in the system must lie in the sending, and it would appear that perhaps the church has failed to understand in some measure the link between ‘confession of the mouth’ and being sent as heralds so that people can hear, believe, call and be saved... This constant motion of salvation, experienced and expressed, would produce an environment in which spontaneously and effectively all those who believe would sense the privilege and joy of being sent to tell.” —Stuart Briscoe

“You don’t have to understand completely to obey immediately.” —Craig Groeschel

Notes:

“We have no right to criticize the corruption of our culture if we are unwilling to fulfill our mission as the Church.”
