Notes:

“A prover of God brings God out of the Bible and makes Him alive today... God loves to be proved. ‘Prove me now’ (Malachi 3:10). He knows that each generation is born skeptical. The Bible must be reborn to every generation. God must break out of the print into the live action and re-create Bible scenes and activities... that’s why He needs Abrahams, Gideons, Davids and Pauls today. In short, He needs God-provers... To prove God in our day as formerly... Proving God, however, is not easy. It involves the impossible... If Satan is still alive, if sin is still man’s habit, and if disease, hunger, and death still stalk, then God must find ‘provers.’ He needs the ordinary man who has extraordinary faith... The question is, ‘Am I willing to risk embarrassment and failure to be a prover of God?’ That is the nub of it all—to dare God and risk everything on His simple Word. Provers of God are always winners with God!” —W. Glyn Evans
