John 14:15-16

Luke 24:27, 44-49

Acts 1:8

“We are a people reliant upon the strength found in the active work of God’s Spirit in and through our lives. We understand this: ‘We can’t, but He can.’ Apart from the active work of the Holy Spirit, we have little to encourage each other and to offer the lost world. The great reality of the church is God! God is real, alive, and active in the world. All we are is based upon His work in His people, the church, through the power of the Holy Spirit in this world.”

Notes:

“In our entertainment-oriented day, it is easy for a church to gauge its effectiveness by the emotionalism created by a carefully crafted service. But emotionalism is not the same thing as hearts brought by reflection to a place of wonder and praise. What’s more, it is not sustainable over time because the mind is not deeply engaged in the outward expression. In short, worship is not an experience to be had, but an inevitable overflow of an informed heart filled with awe.” —Alistar Begg

Concentrate on Total Life

Notes:

"Worship is giving God the best that He has given you. Be careful what you do with the best you have. Whenever you get a blessing from God, give it back to Him as a love gift. Take time to meditate before God and offer the blessing back to Him as a deliberate act of worship." —Oswald Chambers
