“The 23rd Psalm portrays life as a pilgrimage—it is a pilgrimage with God, to God—and our final destination is ‘the house of the Lord.’ Our final destination is unhindered fellowship with Jesus Christ. Revelation 7:15-17

"It's not that heaven is somewhat like home. It is home. Our earthly homes are mere signs or reflections—primitive symbols of warmth, love, togetherness and familiarity. The ultimate reality is our Father's house—where there is a Father who never dies; who makes a home for the lonely; who treats us like family; where real love awaits us; where we're included—'taken in.'" —David Roper
