John 3:19-21

God's Truth

Defines My _____

James 1:19-20

Notes:

"James seems to be speaking particularly about anger at a truth in the Word that displeases, that confronts sin or conflicts with a cherished personal belief or standard of behavior. It refers to a disposition hostile to scriptural truth when it does not correspond one's own convictions, manifested—even if only inwardly—against those who faithfully teach the Word." —John MacArthur

Psalm 119:97, 112

Notes:

God's Truth

James 1:21

Notes:

John 14:21

God's Truth

Exposes My _____

James 1:22-24

Hypocrisy = "the behavior of people who do things that they tell other people not to do : behavior that does not agree with what someone claims to believe or feel"

Notes:

"It appears too many Christians want the thrill of feeling right, but are not willing to endure the inconvenience of being right." —A.W. Tozer
