“Life is far from simple. It is a complex matrix of forces, events, people, contingencies and circumstances over which we have little or no control, making it impossible for anyone to ascertain, design or assume any specific future. Despite that, some people foolishly imagine that they are in charge of their lives. Sadly, such people ignore not only the existence of God’s will, but also its benefit.”

Notes:

“This world tells us to live like we are going to be here forever, urging us to make our plans, acquire our possessions, and work to build our portfolio. But James tells us to submit to God. Don’t live like you’re going to be here forever. Instead, live and plan and work like your life is short and you don’t want to waste it on worldly things. Live like you want to spend your life humbly before the sovereignty of God and ultimately for the glory of God.” —David Platt
