Notes:

John 16:13-14

“The ministry of Jesus is continued and fulfilled through the strategy and sufficiency of the Holy Spirit.”

Notes:

“Sin is a violation of God’s intention for humanity. It is a destructive force that wrecks and ruins the full glory and beauty of humanity as God intended it to be. A mere glance at what is happening in society will convince you how true this is... People all around us are hurting, lonely, and miserable inside; life is just as empty and as painful as it is anywhere on earth. Why is that? It is because of sin. But they do not know that. They do not understand what causes all the pain, hurt, and loneliness. They ascribe it to a lot of different sources, but when those are corrected the same pain, the same emptiness remains.” —Ray Stedman

John 3:18-21

“Sin is the most ‘misdiagnosed’ illness in the human race.”

Notes:

“They are trying to play the game of life without any reference to the One who sets the rules. The first thing they learn when they see people who have been inwardly transformed by the presence of the Spirit releasing to them the life of Jesus is that here are people who have found the secret of life. Here are people who like themselves have suffered all the hurt and the loneliness of life who now have found the secret of calmness, peace, and forgiveness. They discover for the first time that the nature of sin is to ignore the One in charge of life. ‘They sin because they do not believe in Me,’ Jesus declares. The secret to life, therefore, is to believe in and come to the Lord Jesus.”

—Ray Stedman

Notes:
