Notes:

What is worship?

William Temple: “To worship is to quicken the conscience by the holiness of God, to feed the mind with the truth of God, to purge the imagination by the beauty of God, to open the heart to the love of God, to devote the will to the purpose of God.”

David Peterson: “Worship of the living and true God is essentially an engagement with Him on the terms that He proposes and in the way that He alone makes possible.”

John Stott: Christians believe that true worship is the highest and noblest activity of which man, by the grace of God, is capable.

Louie Giglio: Worship is our response, both personal and corporate, to God for who He is, and what He has done; expressed in and by the things we say and the way we live.

Warren Weirsbe: Worship is the believer’s response to all they are—mind, emotions, will, body—to what God is and says and does.

“Worship is my recognition of God’s glorious revelation of Himself and my response to His gracious initiative in my life.” —DHM

Notes:

“Worship is all of me responding to all I know of Him.”

Psalm 103:1-5, 11-13, 19, 22
