Philippians 3:20

Notes:

Acts 17:22-23

Notes:

“The god of American pop culture is an indulgent heavenly spirit who is little threat to our lifestyles and luxuries—a god consistent with consumer culture and rampant immorality. This god might wish human beings would behave, but is powerless when they do not... A vast majority of Americans claim to believe in God, but most believe in an idol of their own imaginations. This deity is always there to be called upon in times of trouble, but he would never intrude upon our personal space, judge our sins, or hinder our happiness... The anemic view of God held by many church members is evident in doctrinal confusion, corrupted worship, compromised evangelism, and spiritual deadness. The absence of awe, wonder, and exaltation in our worship indicates that we have rejected one of the most critical teachings of Scripture—the fear of God.” —Albert Mohler

The Unknown God is

_____ in Creation

Notes:

- His _____ is absolute.

Acts 17:24-25

Notes:

Genesis 2:7

“Humanity was not made for mere existence, but significance and glory through the knowledge of our Creator God.”

- His _____ is specific.

Acts 17:26

Notes:

Jeremiah 9:23-24

Notes:

Romans 1:18-23

Notes:

The Unknown God is _____ in Judgment

Acts 17:30-31

Notes:

“The glory of the gospel is this: The One from whom we need to be saved is the very One who saves us.” —Bruce Frank

Notes:

The Unknown God is _____ to All Who Believe

Acts 17:31, 34

“To know God is to know life.”

John 17:3

“Would you loose your sorrow? Would you drown your cares? Then go plunge yourself in the Godhead’s deepest sea. Be lost in the immensity and you will come forth as from a couch of rest refreshed and invigorated. I know nothing which can so comfort the soul, so calm the swelling billows of sorrow and grief, so speak peace to the winds of trial as the devote musing upon God. It is to that subject I invite you this morning.”

—Charles H. Spurgeon

Romans 10:9-13
