Zechariah = God Remembers

“This doctrine may be fitly applied to our age: for we see how Satan raises up great forces, we see how the whole world conspires against the Church, to prevent the increase or the progress of the kingdom of Christ. When we consider how great are the difficulties which meet us, we are ready to faint and to become wholly dejected. Let us then remember that it is no new thing for enemies to surpass great mountains in elevation; but that the Lord can at length reduce them to a plain. This, then, our shield can cast down and lay prostrated whatever greatness the Devil may set up to terrify us: for as the Lord then reduces a great mountain to a plain, when Zerubbabel was able to do nothing, so at this day, however boldly may multiplied adversaries resist Christ in the work of building a spiritual temple to God the Father, yet all their efforts will be in vain.” —John Calvin

Return to me...and I will return to you.
—Zechariah 1:3 ESV

Notes:

“Worship is first and foremost an issue of the heart.”

Zechariah 7:9-10; 8:16-19

Zechariah 3:1-5

“Surely this is a marvelous portrayal of the biblical doctrine of justification by faith. We who are stained by sin, accused by Satan, and incapable of rendering acceptable service to the holy God can, nevertheless, experience acquittal and acceptance. Paul says, our sin can be removed and we can be clothed in the robe of righteousness of Christ—(Philippians 3:9).” —Mariano DiGangi
