Notes:

The Sabbath of _____ Genesis 2:1-3

“There was nothing to add to what God had done, and He entered a rest from creating, a rest marked by the knowledge that everything He had made was very good (Gen.1:31). So we should think of the rest as something like the satisfaction that comes from accomplishment, for the completion of a task, from the exercise of creativity.” —Leon Morris

The Sabbath of the _____

Notes:

Exodus 20:8-11

Notes:

The Sabbath of _____

A Sabbath rest is important to us because:

1. It's a God-given _____.

Notes:

2. Failing to _____ a Sabbath is destructive.

Notes:

The clock is my dictator, I shall not rest. It makes me lie down only when exhausted. It leads me into deep depression, it hounds my soul. It leads me in circles of frenzy for activities' sake. Even though I run frantically from task to task, I will never get it all done, for my "ideal" is with me. Deadlines and my need for approval, they drive me. They demand performance from me, beyond the limits of my schedule. They anoint my head with migraines, my inbox overflows. Surely fatigue and time pressure shall follow me all the days of my life. And I will dwell in the bonds of frustration forever. —Christine and Tom Sine

Notes:

3. It resets our _____ on God and His work, rather than us and ours.

Notes:

Psalm 46:10

Notes:

The Sabbath of _____

Notes:

Matthew 11:28-29

Notes:

Hebrews 2:1-2, 9-10

Notes:

Isaiah 40:28-31
