Notes:

Matthew 6:12

Notes:

“Forgiveness is not pretending like it didn’t happen or like it didn’t hurt. That’s called lying. Forgiveness is a decision to release a debt regardless of how you feel.” —Dr. Tony Evans

Notes:

1. Let's _____

Notes:

“The first thing to do when we fall into debt is to figure out how much we owe. So what debt do we owe to God because of our sin? We are guilty for what we have done and for what we have left undone, for sins of omission as well as commission. Our debt includes secret sins as well as public ones, deliberate sins as well as sins committed in relative ignorance. And when all our sins are added together, they place us in God’s eternal debt.” —Philip Ryken

Romans 3:23

Notes:

Colossians 2:13-14

“This petition reminds us that the Lord’s Prayer is not a casual prayer for the generically religious. This prayer is a gospel prayer. We can only say these words and ask these things of God when we stand on the finished, atoning work of Jesus Christ. Indeed, this petition demonstrates that the theological bedrock of the Lord’s Prayer is nothing less than the gospel. We can only rightly pray the Lord’s prayer when we recognize that we are deeply sinful and only God’s grace in Christ can remedy our souls.” —Dr. Albert Mohler

Notes:

2. Let's _____

Notes:

Matthew 18:23-35

Notes:

Ephesians 2:8-10

Notes:

“Experiencing God’s forgiveness not only changes the way we feel about those who have offended us, but also the way in which we respond to those who have been offended, overlooked and devalued by others.”

3. Let's _____

Daily confession increases daily compassion.

Notes:

Confession: “We’ve overlooked, ignored and undervalued the needs of people around us in need of compassion.”
