“As the business of tailors is to make clothes and cobblers to make shoes, so it is the business of Christians to pray.”

—Martin Luther

“The little estimate we put on prayer is evident from the little time we give to it.”

—E.M. Bounds

“Men may spurn our appeals, reject our message, oppose our arguments, despise our persons, but they are helpless against our prayers.” —J. Sidlow Baxter

Matthew 6:9-13

Notes:

1 Chronicles 29:11

Ephesians 6:10-11, 18-20

Notes:

“One of the besetting sins of evangelicalism is our obsession with individualism. The first person singular pronoun reigns in our thinking. We tend to think about nearly everything (including the truths in God’s Word) only as they relate to me. Yet when Jesus teaches His disciples to pray, He emphasizes from the very outset that we are part of a corporate people called the church. God is not merely, “my Father.” He is “our Father”—the Father of my brothers and sisters in the faith with whom I identify and with whom I pray.”

—Dr. Albert Mohler
