Romans 5:10

“There is something in Christianity more than a religion, more than an ethic, and more than the idle dream of the sentimental idealist. It is this something which makes it relevant to each one of us right now as a contemporary experience. It is the fact that Christ Himself is the very life content of the Christian faith... It is He who makes it “tick”... Christ did not die simply that you might be saved from a bad conscience, or even to remove the stain of your past failure, but to “clear the decks” for divine action... to be saved by His life. This is the divine genius that saves a man from the futility of self-effort... If it were not for this divine provision, the call to Christ would be a source of utter frustration, presenting the sorry spectacle of a sincere idealist, constantly thwarted by his own inadequacy.—Major Ian Thomas, The Saving Life of Christ
