Together in Patience

Colossians 3:12-14

David H. McKinley

...

“Patience is hard to practice.”

¹²Put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, ¹³bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. ¹⁴And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. —Colossians 3:12-14

The _____

“When you deal with human beings, you have to come to an ‘As Is’ corner of the universe. Think for a moment about someone in your life. Maybe the person you know best, love most. That person is slightly irregular. That person comes with a little tag: There’s a flaw here. A streak of deception, a cruel tongue, a passive spirit, an out of control temper—you may not see it. It is there so don’t be surprised. If you want to enter a relationship with this model, there is only one way—‘As Is.’”

—John Ortberg

“Every one of us pretends to be healthier and kinder than we really are; we all engage in what might be called, ‘depravity management.’” —John Ortberg
