[1]He entered Jericho and was passing through. [2]And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. [3]And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature. [4]So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was about to pass that way. [5]And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." [6]So he hurried and came down and received Him joyfully. [7]And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." [8]And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." [9]And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. [10]For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." —Luke 19:1-10

"When Jesus becomes your Master, He changes how you handle your money."

1. Has your _____ with the Master changed your _____ with your money?

"Materialism is a disease of the heart that can only be cured by our Lord Jesus Christ." —Ron Blue

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
—Matthew 6:21

2. How does a biblical _____ change Your financial _____?

• We live by the principle of "_____."

"Stewardship is the wise and effective investment of all the resources the Master has entrusted to us in order to produce the best possible return for Him and for His kingdom."
—Rick Dunham

• We count _____ differently.

Notes:

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places. —Ephesians 1:3

• We value _____ over our _____.

[8]But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. [9]But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. [10]For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. —1 Timothy 6:8-10

• We overcome _____ with _____.

For Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. —2 Timothy 4:10

3. Are you trusting _____ or trying to find your own _____?

[16]And He told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man produced plentifully, [17]and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?' [18]And he said, 'I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. [19]And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry."' [20]But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' [21]So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."
—Luke 12:16-21

"You cannot satisfy yourself." (Ecclesiastes 5:10-20)

"The more you surrender to God, the more satisfaction you will find in God."

No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.
—Matthew 6:24
