2. How to Guard Your Greatest Asset

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

_____ =
How you see and what you think about someone or something

"Folks need perspective. For perspective brings calm. Calm leads to clear thinking. Clear thinking yields new ideas. And ideas produce the bloom…of an answer. Keep your head and heart clear. Perspective can just as easily be lost as it can be found."
—Andy Andrews

Ecclesiastes 2:17

[1]For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: [2]a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; [3]a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; [4]a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; [5]a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; [6]a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; [7]a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; [8]a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace. [9]What gain has the worker from his toil? [10]I have seen the business that God has given to the children of man to be busy with. [11]He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, he has put eternity into man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end. —Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

3. Life is a Fleeting _____

Ecclesiastes 3:11

"Until we appreciate the value of time and learn to manage it with skill, we can never manage ourselves. But in learning to regulate time, we learn to govern life, for life is measured in hours and minutes just as the body is measured in pounds and ounces. Management of time is our greatest stewardship, even greater than the stewardship of our money. Time is like currency of a different realm; it's the coinage of life."
—Robert Morgan
