

1. Life is a Series of Events

2. Life is a Mixture of Ingredients

*"This passage covers the widest possible range and thus practically every aspect of human life."
—H.C. Leupold*

3. Life is a Fleeting Asset

Ecclesiastes 3:11

*"Until we appreciate the value of time and learn to manage it with skill, we can never manage ourselves. But in learning to regulate time, we learn to govern life, for life is measured in hours and minutes just as the body is measured in pounds and ounces. Management of time is our greatest stewardship, even greater than the stewardship of our money. Time is like currency of a different realm; it's the coinage of life."
—Robert Morgan*

Wake Up and See Each Day as a Gift from God

Intentionally Focus on Living One Day at a Time

Three Tripping Points with Time:

1. _____: We do the wrong things.
2. _____: We do nothing.
3. _____: We do everything but what matters most.

Separate the Important From the Urgent

"The things that are _____ often demand the least of us and the things that are _____ drain the strength from us."

Enrich Your Life by Developing Discipline and Embracing Change

Horizontal lines for taking notes.