Notes:

"Time is really the only capital that any human being has and the only thing he cannot afford to lose." —Thomas Edison

"Dost' thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is stuff life is made of." —Benjamin Franklin

Proverbs 28:26

2. _____ is often
the enemy of progress.

Notes:

"Anything worth doing is worth doing poorly." —Peter Drucker

Five reasons anything worth doing is worth doing poorly:

(1) Clarity comes from action, not thinking; (2) Creativity flows when you don't block it; (3) Energy is created from action; (4) Growth comes from progress, not perfection; (5) Momentum generates when you stay focused on the immediate next step.

3. _____ the discipline of

Notes:

"Don't be fooled by the lie, 'If you're not doing a lot, then you're not doing enough.'" —Bret Legg

"Truth sits on the lips of dying men." —Matthew Arnold
