My Trust is Based on God's Character

Slide03.jpg

"The Bible never operates with an abstract concept of God, but always describes Him as the Living God, who enters into relations with His creatures, relations which are indicative of several different attributes."
Louis Berkof, Systematic Theology

When do I need to trust God?

Slide10.jpg

When I Make Mistakes

Slide11.jpg

"Many people think God punishes our failures by giving us a second-class rating. No, failure should not produce depression, rather dependence."

Slide12.jpg

We do not serve Him to gain His favor. We serve Him because He has favored us." --Unknown

When My Pain is a Mystery

Slide16.jpg

"Suffering is a catalyst that produces spiritual change. God intends suffering to draw you into His loving arms. Satan, however, tries to use hardship as a wedge to pry you away from God."

Slide17.jpg

"As a result, whenever a crisis enters your life, so does the temptation to doubt God's love, goodness and faithfulness. You are then faced with a crucial decision."

Slide18.jpg

"Will you trust God to work in your circumstances or turn your back on Him as you seek relief in other ways?"

Slide19.jpg

"Your faith in God and attitude toward Him ultimately determine whether your trials will make you a better person or serve as tools for your destruction."

Bill Bright

My Circumstance Serves to Prove God's Character

Slide23.jpg

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ. Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril or sword?

Romans 8:35

Slide24.jpg

Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by my name; you are Mine! When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overflow you.

Slide25.jpg

When you walk through the fire, you shall not be scorched, nor will flame burn you. For I am the Lord your God... your Savior... you are precious in my sight, you are honored and I love you. Isaiah 43:1-4 NASV
