

“The easiest thing to do everyday is to follow the path of least resistance.”

“To live a disciplined life, and to accept the result of that discipline as the will of God—that is the mark of a man.” —TOM LANDRY

By faith, Moses, when grown, refused the privileges of the Egyptian royal house. He chose a hard life with God's people rather than an opportunistic soft life of sin with the oppressors.

Slide14.jpg

He valued suffering in the Messiah's camp far greater than Egyptian wealth because he was looking ahead, anticipating the payoff. HEBREWS 11:24-26

“The mind is like a stomach, it’s not how much you put into it that counts, but how much it digests.” A.J. NOCK

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable— if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you. Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.

Slide39.jpg

Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.

Slide40.jpg

But the man who looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it--he will be blessed in what he does.
JAMES 1:21-25
