Parallels

Both spiritual and physical adultery are against God's law.

Slide09.jpg

Parallels

Both spiritual and physical adultery begin with disappointment and dissatisfaction—either real or imagined—with an already existing relationship.

Slide10.jpg

Parallels

Both spiritual and physical adultery begin with diverting affection from one object of devotion to another.

Slide11.jpg

Parallels

Both spiritual and physical adultery involve a process of deterioration; it is not usually an impulsive decision.

Slide12.jpg

Parallels

Both spiritual and physical adultery involve the creation of a fantasy about what a new object of love can do for you.

Hear the Message

While we may be unfaithful, God is faithful and moves to bring judgment on sin.

Slide14.jpg

Hosea

Ingratitude 2:8; 4:1,6; 8:14; 13:4-6
Idolatry 4:17; 5:4; 8:4-6; 10:5-6
Infidelity 6:4-10; 7; 8:9
Injustice 4:1-2; 7:1-15

Slide15.jpg

Sin not only breaks
God's law, sin breaks
God's heart!

Slide16.jpg

Experience the Truth

God says broken relationships are reconcilable through His mercy, love and grace.

“This is the story of the Bible, isn’ t it? At Bethlehem, God entered the slave market where the whole human race was putting itself up for auction, prostituting itself and its humanity to a cheapened life. But on the cross the Lord Jesus paid the price, the full price for our freedom, and bought us back.”

Slide22.jpg

“This is the story of God’ s love and God’ s heart—His loving desire to make His people the full persons He intended for them to be.”

—RAY C. STEDMAN

“O Love that will not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe,
that in thine ocean depths that flow,
may richer, fuller be.”

—GEORGE MATHESON
