

LAW 1:
"Always make your future bigger than your past."
— The Laws of Lifetime Growth
 By Dan Sullivan and Catherine Nomura

Many face the future with apprehension.

"I'm just glad it will be Clark Gable who's falling on his face and not Gary Cooper."
—Gary Cooper

Others face the future with anticipation.

“My interest is in the future because I am going to spend the rest of my life there.”

—Charles Kettering

“A bigger future is essential for lifetime growth. The past is useful because it is rich with experiences that are worth thinking about in new ways—and all of these valuable experiences can become raw material for creating an even bigger future.”

“Approach your past with this attitude, and you will have an insatiable desire for even better, more enjoyable experiences. Use your past to continually create a bigger future, and you will separate yourself from situations, relationships, and activities that can trap you there.”

—The Laws of Lifetime Growth

<sup>12</sup>Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. <sup>13</sup>Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, <sup>14</sup>I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. <sup>16</sup>Only let us hold true to what we have attained.

—Philippians 3:12-16

As humans, we have five lives:

- Life “Yesterday”

“Everybody knows that experiences from the past influence how we live, work, think, cope with stress, and get along with others in the present... Most of us can think of past events, fears, losses, embarrassments, expectations, or comments that influenced our lives permanently and did damage... But events from the past can be (and often are) positive.”

—Dr. Gary R. Collins

"A continual looking forward to the eternal world is not a form of escapism or wishful thinking, but one of the things a Christian is meant to do. It does not mean that we are to leave the present world as it is. If you read history, you will find that Christians who did the most for the present world were just those who thought most about the next." —C.S. Lewis
