

One person trained twelve human beings who went on to so influence the world that time itself is now recorded as being before (B.C.) or after (A.D.) His existence.

This person worked with a staff that was totally human and not divine—a staff that in spite of illiteracy, questionable backgrounds, fractious feelings, and momentary cowardice—went on to accomplish the tasks He trained them to do. They did this for one main reason: to be with Him again.

His leadership style was intended to be put to use by any of us.

“Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit?” —Luke 6:39

“Leadership is lifting a person’s vision to higher sights, the raising of a person’s performance to a higher standard, the building of a personality beyond its normal limitations.”

“All men dream, but not equally.
Those who dream by night in the dusty recesses of their minds wake in the day to find it was vanity. But the dreamers of the day are dangerous men,
for they may act their dreams with open eyes to make it possible.”
