“These biblical realities make for a worldview that is sharply distinguishable from the worldviews around us, even where there are overlapping values. We cannot embrace unrestrained secularism; democracy is not God. Freedom can be another word for rebellion. The lust for power, universal as it is, must be viewed with more than a little suspicion.”

“This means that Christian communities—honestly seeking to live under the Word of God—will inevitably generate cultures that, to say the least, will in some sense counter or confront the values of the dominant culture. But ‘to say the least’ is not enough.”
—D.A. Carson, Christ and Culture

Missions is God's mandate, not just the church's agenda.

Divine Dispatch

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. —Acts 1:8 ESV

13.jpg

Evangelism is a supernatural work of God or it is nothing of eternal significance.

14.jpg

¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power [Gk. dunamis] of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.
¹⁷For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, “The righteous shall live by faith.” —Romans 1:16-17 ESV

15.jpg

The world is not commanded to go to church; the church is commanded to go to the world.

16.jpg

¹⁹Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.
—Matthew 28:19-20 ESV

17.jpg

The Gospel is not a “keepsake.”
It is intended to be a “give away.”

18.jpg

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

—2 Corinthians 5:21 ESV

¹May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, ²that your way may be known on earth, your saving power among all nations.

Psalm 67:1-2 ESV

23.jpg

Syncretism is not evangelism.

24.jpg

Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. —Matthew 7:13 ESV

25.jpg

And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved. —Acts 4:12 ESV

26.jpg

“Our task is to make the faith intelligible, but not credible or palatable, for the Spirit does that. Our aim is to clarify the Gospel, to set forth its scandal without ambiguity, mitigating this scandal.” —Donald Bloesch

27.jpg

“The greatest risk is a polarization among evangelicals. Into one camp will cluster the modern monastics—those holding to truth and tradition, but isolated from society. In the other camp will cluster the modern post-Christian secularists—the sociologically relevant who are no longer truly Christians.” —Leith Anderson

Missions is a call to deny self and follow Christ.

29.jpg

...¹⁵and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised...

¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation.

The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

—2 Corinthians 5:15, 17 ESV

30.jpg

There is an urgency to our task; eternity is in the balance.

31.jpg

And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. —Matthew 24:14 ESV

32.jpg

You are a missionary!

33.jpg

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. —Acts 1:8 ESV
