Don't Trade Your Life For Your Job

1 The secret to a satisfied
life is a successful career.

05.jpg

Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had expended in doing it, and behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

—Ecclesiastes 2:11 ESV

2 Success can be measured by the sum total of two numbers: promotions + earnings.

08.jpg

¹⁶Better is a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble with it.

¹⁷Better is a dinner of herbs where love is than a fattened ox and hatred with it.

—Proverbs 15:16-17 ESV

⁷Again, I saw vanity under the sun:

⁸one person who has no other, either son or brother, yet there is no end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, "For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?" This also is vanity and an unhappy business.

—Ecclesiastes 4:7-8 ESV

The rich think their wealth protects them; they imagine themselves safe behind it. —Proverbs 18:11 MSG

12.jpg

Whoever trusts in his riches will fall,
but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf. —Proverbs 11:28 ESV

13.jpg

⁴Do not toil to acquire wealth;
be discerning enough to desist.
⁵When your eyes light on it, it is gone, for suddenly it sprouts
wings, flying like an eagle toward heaven.

—Proverbs 23:4-5 ESV

4 Success Leads to Significance

15.jpg

He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves wealth with his income; this also is vanity.

—Ecclesiastes 5:10 ESV

16.jpg

²⁴The world of the generous gets larger and larger; the world of the stingy gets smaller and smaller.

²⁵The one who blesses others is abundantly blessed; those who help others are helped.

—Proverbs 11:24-25 MSG
