<sup>10</sup>As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: <sup>11</sup>whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. —1 Peter 4:7-11 ESV

“The great characteristic of sanity is that it sees things in their proper proportion; it sees what things are important and what things are not important, it is not swept away by sudden and capricious and transitory enthusiasms; it is prone neither to unbalanced fanaticism nor to unrealizing indifference.”

“It is only when we see the affairs and activities of earth in light of eternity that we see them in their proper proportions and their proper importances. It is when God is given proper place that all things take their proper places.”

—William Barclay
