were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

A Question

-.014.tif

Are you living out God's missional purpose in your life?

-.015.tif

What is important about any church is not its seating capacity, but its sending capacity.

-.016.tif

<sup>26</sup>For consider your calling, brothers: not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. <sup>27</sup>But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong. —1 Corinthians 1:26-27 ESV

Missional living is the adoption of the posture, thinking, behaviors, and practices of a missionary in order to engage others with the gospel message.

Let's do something with...

- No Cost
- No Change
- No Challenge
- No Commitment

“The key to the relative failure of the church appears to be in the ‘sending’ of those who can reach the unreached... The only possible flaw in the system must lie in the sending, and it would appear that perhaps the church has failed to understand in some measure the link between ‘confession of the mouth’ and being sent as heralds”

... “so that people can hear, believe, call and be saved... This constant motion of salvation, experienced and expressed, would produce an environment in which spontaneously and effectively all those who believe would sense the privilege and joy of being sent to tell.” —Stuart Briscoe
