<sup>15</sup>I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were either cold or hot! <sup>16</sup>So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup>For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked.

<sup>18</sup>I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, so that you may see. <sup>19</sup>Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent. —Revelation 3:15-19 ESV

“Authentic community happens when the real you meets real needs for the right reason. Loving people isn’t about having ooey-gooey feelings or just doing it when you feel like it. Loving people isn’t about doing it so you get affirmed and esteemed, and become the object of the praises of men. Loving people for the right reasons means we give others what they need the most when they deserve it least at great personal cost.” —Chip Ingram
