

What is the chief end of man?

Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy Him forever.

He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, He has put eternity into man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end.
—Ecclesiastes 3:11

For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost. —Luke 19:10

For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many. —Mark 10:45

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims
His handiwork. —Psalm 19:1

God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good. —Genesis 1:31

God made us for purposeful significance, not for wasteful existence.

The Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature. —Genesis 2:7

He has put eternity into man's heart...
—Ecclesiastes 3:11
