³³And Josiah took away all the abominations from all the territory that belonged to the people of Israel and made all who were present in Israel serve the Lord their God. All his days they did not turn away from following the Lord, the God of their fathers.

¹²Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me His own. ¹³Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. —Philippians 3:12-14 ESV

¹⁵Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ¹⁶For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the Father but is from the world. ¹⁷And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. —1 John 2:15-17 ESV

God, give us men!
A time like this demands
strong minds, great hearts,
true faith and ready hands;
men whom the lust of office does not kill;
men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
men who possess opinions and a will;
men who have honor;
men who will not lie;
men who can stand before a demagogue
and damn his treacherous flatteries without winking!

Tall men, sun-crowned,
who live above the fog in public duty,
and in private thinking;
for while the rabble,
with their thumb-worn creeds,
their large professions and their little deeds, mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps, wrong rules the land
and waiting Justice sleeps.

—Josiah G. Holland (1819-1891)
