Three Preliminary Statements:

• Growth is the Evidence of Life

• Growth is the Energy of Life

Growth...
Fuels my dreams.
Shapes my decisions.
Renews my discipline.
Deepens my determination.

Three Preliminary Statements:

- Growth is the Evidence of Life
- Growth is the Energy of Life
- Growth is not always easy, but the rewards are great.

12Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me His own.

13Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,

14I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. 15Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. 16Only let us hold true to what we have attained.—Philippians 3:12-16 ESV

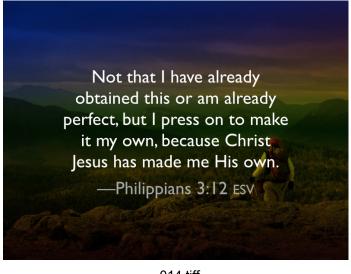

But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life. —Proverbs 6:23 ESV

Whoever heeds instruction is on the path to life, but he who rejects reproof leads others astray.

... has everything to do with your attitude and little to do with your ability.

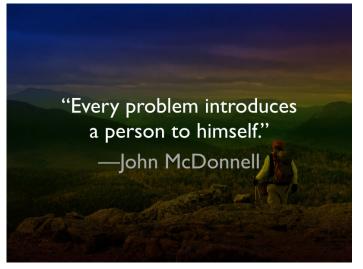

... continues when you focus on gains through losses.

... has everything to do with your attitude and little to do with your ability.

... continues when you focus on gains through losses.

... concentrates on direction more than distance.
