

-.001.tiff

-.002.tiff

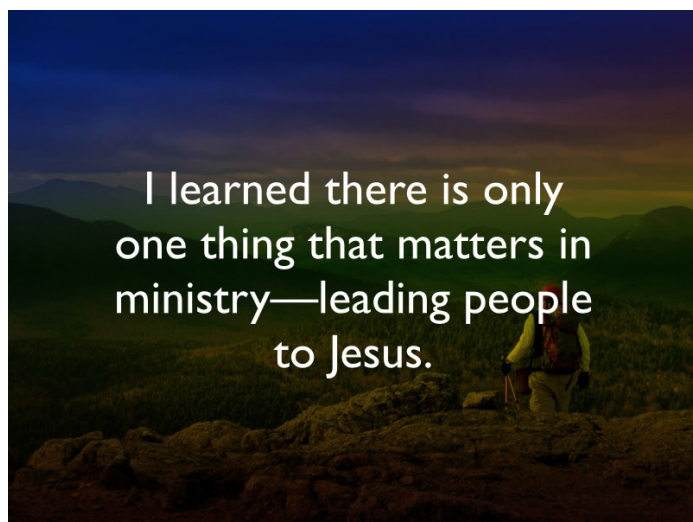

-.003.tiff

-.004.tiff

-.005.tiff

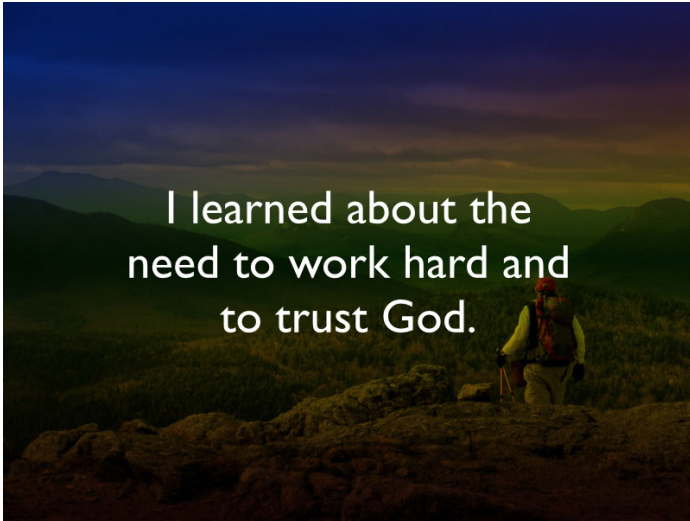

-.006.tiff

I learned about the need for clarity of vision and giving voice to that vision in every part of ministry.

-.007.tiff

I learned about the need to work hard and to trust God.

-.008.tiff

I learned about the need to lead people and challenge them to step up.

-.009.tiff

I learned not to push my own agenda, but honor
the structure of the team.

-.010.tiff

I learned not to argue over a corpse!

-.011.tiff

My Timothys

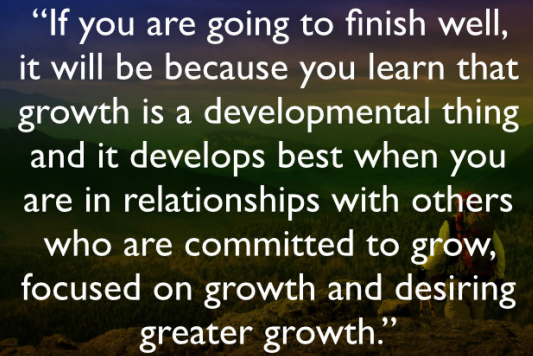

-.012.tiff

¹⁷O God, from my youth You have taught me, and I still proclaim Your wondrous deeds. ¹⁸So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim Your might to another generation, Your power to all those to come.

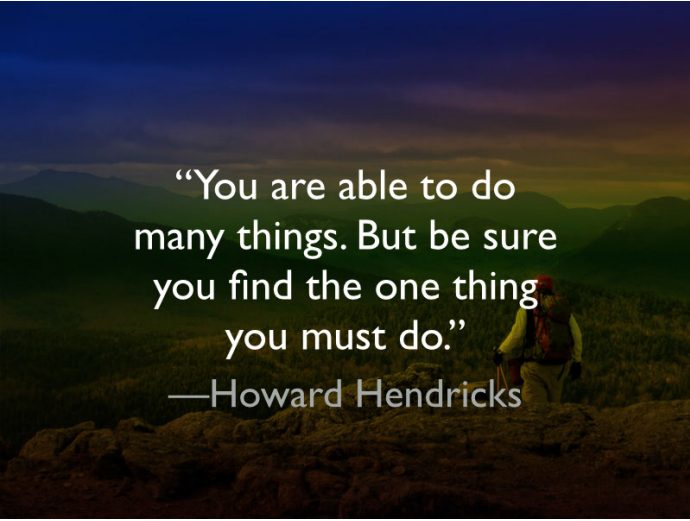

—Psalm 71:17-18 ESV

-.013.tiff

“If you are going to finish well, it will be because you learn that growth is a developmental thing and it develops best when you are in relationships with others who are committed to grow, focused on growth and desiring greater growth.”

-.014.tiff

“You are able to do many things. But be sure you find the one thing you must do.”

—Howard Hendricks

-.015.tiff