“Religion is based upon authority and without that authority, faith is sheer speculation. If religion is nothing but human, fallible, probing guesswork, one man’s conclusions may be about as good and acceptable as another man’s. Religion is absolutely washed out when it is based upon philosophical conjectures.

-.007.tiff

If faith is nothing but what a man may or may not think it to be, it is nothing. If there is to be real religion, somewhere, sometime, somehow God must speak. God must disclose Himself.” —W.A. Criswell

“By inspiration we mean that through the superintending influence of God’s Spirit on the writers of Holy Scripture, the account and interpretation of God’s revelation have been recorded as God intended so that the Bible actually is the Word of God.

Inspiration preserved or recorded what God had revealed so that the resulting document carried the same authority and effect as if God Himself were speaking directly. This view of complete inspiration involving divine intention and words of Scripture is called plenary inspiration.”

... <sup>20</sup>knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone’s own interpretation.

<sup>21</sup>For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.
