Consider This Picture of Personal and Perpetual Renewal

¹Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; ²but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night.

³He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.

“Renewal is not something that it is something that happens with us.”

-.010.tiff

¹²Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure.

¹⁵But now even more the report about Him went abroad, and great crowds gathered to hear Him and to be healed of their infirmities. ¹⁶But He would withdraw to desolate places and pray. —Luke 5:15-16 ESV

Offer the Sacrifice of Praise and Be Joyful

-.022.tiff

¹⁴For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. ¹⁵Through Him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge His name.

—Hebrews 13:14-15 ESV

“Full participation in the life of God’s Kingdom and in the vivid companionship of Christ comes to us only through appropriate exercise in the disciplines for life in the spirit. Those disciplines alone can become for average Christians ‘the conditions upon which the spiritual life is made indubitably real.’ It’s true.

And if this point can be made as convincingly as its truth and its importance deserves, the practical effects will be stunning. There will be a life-giving revolution in our personal lives and in our world.”
