IlFor I would have you know, brothers, that the gospel that was preached by me is not man's gospel. I2For I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ. I3For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it.

l⁴And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. ¹⁵But when He who had set me apart before I was born, and who called me by His grace,

If was pleased to reveal His Son to me, in order that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone; In or did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

—Galatians I: II-17 ESV

Religious Fanatics vs. Christ Followers
Performance-Driven vs. Grace-Captured

"The startling truth of Christianity is that God's pleasure is not based on our performance... God's favor is free... it's based on His performance—Christ for us."

—Tony Merida

⁸For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

¹⁰For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

—Ephesians 2:8-10 ESV

"This whole section flows out of the last three words of verse II: 'not man's gospel.' Why are those words there?

Because the real gospel is counterintuitive. It is not what we expect. It is not what we are comfortable with. The message, 'Hey you rotten sinners, stop it! Get your act together!' makes total sense to us.

What is the Nature of Scripture?

The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever.

—Isaiah 40:8 ESV

16 All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, 17 that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.—2 Timothy 3:16-17 ESV

"Paul understood that the messenger must embody the message.
Paul understood that he is himself a living argument for 'not man's gospel.'
He is a living surprise, because he really represents God's counter-intuitive grace. When we see the gospel in a person, then we really see it, we can touch it, we can understand it as more than an argument." —Martin Luther

"The gospel came to you because it was heading to someone else. God never intended for your salvation to be an end, but a beginning."

—Robby Gallaty

"The gospel is not good advice from man; it is good news from God. Rejoice in the gospel. In Christ, you find what your heart has always longed to find. No other love is this great. No other hope is this secure.

No other forgiveness is this complete.

No other joy is this deep. No other freedom is this liberating. No other peace is this sweet. All of it is found in the grace that is in Christ Jesus." —Tony Merida
