

²²So Joseph remained in Egypt, he and his father's house.
Joseph lived 110 years.

²³And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation. The children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were counted as Joseph's own.

²⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will visit you and bring you up out of this land to the land that He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

²⁵Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here." ²⁶So Joseph died; being 110 years old. They embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his bones.

⁶Then Joseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation.
⁷But the people of Israel were fruitful and increased greatly; they multiplied and grew exceedingly strong, so that the land was filled with them...
⁸Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.

—Exodus 1:6-8 ESV

"I predict future happiness for Americans if they can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them."

—Thomas Jefferson

Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There never was a democracy yet that did not commit suicide." —John Adams

When the people find they can vote themselves money, that will herald the end of the republic." —Benjamin Franklin
