

¹Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness.

-001.tiff

Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted.
²Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

³For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.
⁴But let each one test his own work,

-003.tiff

and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. ⁵For each will have to bear his own load. —Galatians 6:1-5 ESV

3. God Calls Us to Walk Faithfully in Our Own Difficulty

An old man, going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm, vast and deep and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim—
That sullen stream had no fears for him;
But he turned, when he reached the other side,
And built a bridge to span the tide.

“Old man,” said a fellow pilgrim near,
“You are wasting strength in building here.
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again must pass this way.
You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build the bridge at the eventide?”

The builder lifted his old gray head.
“Good friend, in the path I have come,” he said,
“There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been naught to me
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
Good friend, I am building the bridge for him.”

¹¹Whenever Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed,
and whenever he lowered his hand, Amalek prevailed.
¹²But Moses' hands grew weary,

so they took a stone and put it under him,
and he sat on it, while Aaron and Hur held up his hands,
one on one side, and the other on the other side.
