<sup>9</sup>Do not cast me off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength is spent. <sup>10</sup>For my enemies speak concerning me; those who watch for my life consult together <sup>11</sup>and say, "God has forsaken him; pursue and seize him, for there is none to deliver him." —Psalm 71:5-11

<sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought him word again as it was in my heart. <sup>8</sup>But my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I wholly followed the LORD my God...

<sup>10</sup>And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, just as He said, these forty-five years since the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. And now, behold, I am this day eighty-five years old.

<sup>11</sup>I am still as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me; my strength now is as my strength was then, for war and for going and coming. <sup>12</sup>So now give me this hill country of which the LORD spoke on that day, for you heard on that day how the Anakim were there, with great fortified cities. It may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out just as the LORD said."

<sup>12</sup>O God, be not far from me; O my God, make haste to help me! <sup>13</sup>May my accusers be put to shame and consumed; with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt. <sup>14</sup>But I will hope continually and will praise You yet more and more. <sup>15</sup>My mouth will tell of Your righteous acts, of Your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge. <sup>16</sup>With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come; I will remind them of Your righteousness, Yours alone... <sup>19</sup>Your righteousness, O God, reaches the high heavens. You who have done great things, O God, who is like You? —Psalm 71:12-16, 19

<sup>3</sup>For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

—Romans 8:3-4

For our sake He made Him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.
—2 Corinthians 5:21

<sup>17</sup>O God, from my youth You have taught me, and I still proclaim Your wondrous deeds. <sup>18</sup>So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim Your might to another generation, Your power to all those to come. —Psalm 71:17-18

You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again; from the depths of the earth You will bring me up again.
—Psalm 71:20

"Revival is nothing more than a new beginning of obedience to God."
—Charles Finney
"Revival cannot be organized, but we can set our sails to catch the wind from heaven when God chooses to blow upon His people once again."
—G. Campbell Morgan

"Revival is not an emotional experience or a momentary movement, but it is the active and sustained work of God in and through His people—the Church—as they walk in humble surrender and confident obedience to the gospel mandate to go and make disciples and teach them to observe 'all I have commanded you.'"
